ONLINE AUCTION

SPRINGFIELD RESCUE MISSION'S EASTER MEAL FUNDRAISER

The Springfield Rescue Mission Plans to Serve over 2,000 Meals Easter Week

WHO: Mission supporters donate items to be placed up for bid. Other supporters and vendors advertise by becoming sponsors. The auction is open to the public and all are encouraged to log on and bid to help the homeless during the Easter Season.

WHAT: Proceeds from the auction go directly to feed and care for the hungry, homeless, addicted and poor at the Springfield Rescue Mission. We provide over 1,500 meals a week and even more during the holiday seasons.

WHEN: March 15 – March 30

WHERE: www.spfldrescuemission.cmarket.com

WHY: When asked why donor Laurie Kincaid wanted to help the Mission, she replied, "I donate to the auction because I believe in the work that God is doing at the Springfield Rescue Mission. I serve breakfast at the Mission once a month, and personally see the transformation of lives in the men who live and work there. It is evident how diligent they are to make that same hope known to others. The humility and commitment of the staff and director, Ron Willoughby, are inspirational, and their dependence on Jesus to get the work done for the sake of His Kingdom sets a clear example of how we all should live daily. It is a privilege to have my worldly possessions used to further the Kingdom work done at the SRM."
